Barnum. Some laws teach the need for prudence ( " Law 1: Never Outshine the Master " ), others teach the value of confidence ( " Law 28: Enter Action with Boldness " ), and many recommend absolute self-preservation ( " Law 15: Crush Your Enemy Totally " ). Every law, though, has one thing in common: an interest in total domination. The New York Times bestseller that gives readers a paradigm-shattering new way to think about motivation from the author of When: The Scientific Secrets of Perfect Timing Most people believe that the best way to motivate is with rewards like money—the carrot-and-stick approach. In this provocative and persuasive new book, he asserts that the secret to high performance and satisfaction-at work, at school, and at home—is the deeply human need to direct our own lives, to learn and create new things, and to do better by ourselves and our world. Drawing on four decades of scientific research on human motivation, Pink exposes the mismatch between what science knows and what business does—and how that affects every aspect of life. He examines the three elements of true motivation—autonomy, mastery, and purpose—and offers smart and surprising techniques for putting these into action in a unique book that will change how we think and transform how we live.
