What Kids Do by Mary Engelbreit is a
joyously simple
celebration-through art and poignant
words-of the endless
little ways that

children bring warmth
into our hearts and
light into our world.
Mary Engelbreit has always had an
uncanny ability to capture the
quintessential
moments of childhood-
moments that express
exhilaration,
playfulness, curiosity,
willfulness, high
spirits, friendship, and of course, abiding
love. In *What Kids
Do*, these images are presented in a strikingly fresh format and paired with short,
lively reminders of all the simple little ways
kids make us smile
and enrich our lives.

Why is fashion "in fashion" in museums today? This timely volume brings together expert scholars and curators to examine the reasons behind fashion's popularity in the twenty-first century museum and the impact this has had on wider museum practice. Chapters explore the role of fashion in the museum across a range of international case studies including the Costume Institute at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York, The Fashion Museum at Bath, ModeMuseum in Antwerp and many more. Contributions look at topics such as how fashion has made museums accessible to diverse audiences and how curators present broader themes and issues such as gender, class and technology innovatively through exhibiting fashion. Drawing on approaches from dress history, fashion studies, museum studies and curatorship, this engaging book will be key reading for students and scholars across a range of disciplines.
