depends on the company you want to work for, and the exact job offer. Basically, there are two possible scenarios: If you apply for a job in a hotel chain, or in a company that manages many properties, you can expect a lengthy and difficult interview, with some behavioral questions, and also with a practical test of your abilities.

The difficulty will depend on the person who leads an interview with you, and on their own knowledge of mechanical engineering. It will also depend on the number of people you compete with for the job. To some technical questions ...
