Laura Plantation is a restored historic

Louisiana Creole plantation on the west bank of the Mississippi River near Vacherie, Louisiana,, open for guided tours.

Formerly known as Duparc Plantation, it is significant for its early 19th-century Créolestyle raised big house and several surviving outbuildings, including two slave cabins. It is one of only 15 plantation complexes in Louisiana with this many complete structures. Because of its historical importance, the plantation is on the ...

Rating details · 290 ratings · 55 reviews. In 1936, Laura Locoul Gore compiled an account of nearly 100 years of life on a Louisiana sugar plantation named after her: "Laura Plantation."

According to Frank Ward Hustace, in his book

"Victoria Ward and Her Family: Memories of Old Plantation," the fishpond was filled with amaama, mullet, and aholehole. The artesian well was fed by a spring of cool water, as clear as glass.
