IMU CET as you know is an exam for taking admission in to the maritime colleges. IMU Common Entrance Test (CET), which is also known as IMU CET, is conducted by Indian Maritime University, a government recognized University. The University conducts the common entrance test for admission in its undergraduate level program in the field of maritime engineering. PCM (Physics, Chemistry and Math) has important role in IMU CET and all competitive exams. Even a single question can change your rank, life and future. The questions on PCM asked in various competitive examinations aren't easy to solve without having enough practice of the concepts on which the same are based. The book is especially helpful to students who are preparing for IMU CET exam. While designing this book, the format and the nature of the examination have been taken into consideration. The book can also be used by students who are preparing for other competitive examinations.

Its early December when sixteen-year-old Edward Paige leans out of the train window and bids his parents farewell. Bound for London, then the south of France where he will join his first ship as a deck apprentice, Edward is about to become a man of the sea. Edward has had a yearning to go to sea for as long as he can remember. As he embarks on his adventure, he has one goal - to become an officer in the British Merchant Navy. After finishing cadet school, where the learning curve is steep and the life lessons are plentiful, Edward soon receives his first glimpse of the Mediterranean as he arrives in Marseilles, France. On an adventure marked not only by hardship but also joy, Edwards travels take him to the North Sea, the Baltic, the angry North Atlantic, the Caribbean, and the South Atlantic - but it is the night he spends with a beautiful woman in Buenos Aires that will change his life forever. In this coming-of-age tale, Edward battles the sea, the weather, and his own emotions as he enters into manhood.

'I am a serial killer. You don't know me. You may know of my work, my accomplishments, my deeds and my triumphs. You will not, however, know of my mistakes, my near misses or what made and inspired me to be the person I am today.' Gary Robinson has an ordinary name, but not an ordinary life. He's a man who takes a great amount of care, and derives a great amount pleasure from his work. He is a mass murderer, a monster. He kills for the pleasure of it. This is his story, written as only he can tell it. It is not for the faint-hearted.

Rod Angell has woven the details of his eventful life into a vivid story of “ rags to a comparatively comfortable retirement. ” He was born in 1929, the year of the Wall Street Crash and the poverty of his family, struggling in the Depression to live and care for their children on a scanty income; however, all this was of lesser importance to him in later life than being born in the same year as Popeye! Follow the account of a Yorkshire tyke as he reveals in quite vivid detail the life of a childhood in the ' 30s, enduring all the gamut of childhood ailments and disease in a time before drugs, antibiotics, and the wonder of penicillin. He discusses life as a wartime evacuee, progressing with humorous anecdotes and drama into a challenging, action-filled life as a Grenadier Guardsman on active service and then a drummer to the Royal Household, with all the pomp and ceremony that was his lot. He also tells of the many royal and state occasions he was a part of. The final part of his working life was as a firefighter, with its many challenges, ending his career in the rank of divisional commander. This book is not the story of two men, but of one who, after a demanding life as a soldier, followed by a dangerous one as a firefighter, surely became twice the man he was.
