PRAYER A to Z: A Comprehensive Bible-Based Study of Prayer Carpenter's Son Publishing
There is an inherent desire in all of us to know that our lives really matter. We were created to flourish. Unfortunately, many of the models or aspirations of flourishing from our culture are limiting. This is because they are disconnected from God's original design for us. We flourish most when we find our lives in the overflow of what God is doing in this world. God is a missionary God. Throughout the Scriptures, God again and again, invites his people to be on mission with him. The story of Jonah in the Hebrew scriptures is one of God's most graphic callings. It is a midcourse correction for the children of God. It is also an invitation to all of us to ask if we are on mission with God. After exploring the story of Jonah, Jonah and Me, will unfold a biblical theology of mission. Beginning in Genesis and moving through Revelation, using the larger themes of being chosen, called, and commissioned, we will see how God has been inviting his children to be on mission with him throughout the ages. Finally, the book will offer suggestions on how to discover, rediscover, or simply reenergize in your life mission.

Have you ever wondered what you were created to do? You may think you have an idea but arent positive that you are fulfilling the purpose for which God created you. First of all, you have to find the unique purpose that He created you for. In his new book, Andrew Wommack teaches you how to do just that. Once you find the will of God for your life, then you will have the assurance and joy that comes from knowing exactly where God wants you to be. As you follow the will of God for your life allows you to set goals and purposely seek after what God has created you to do. Andrew teaches you that the number one way that we learn to follow Gods will is to simply put God first. When you put Him first then the desire of your heart changes to match up with His. Lastly, Andrew teaches how to fulfill the will of God in your life. Its one thing to find Gods will and start moving in the right direction, but its something else to stay at it over the long haul. Anybody can start, but its the people who finish that really make a difference. Finishing is more important than starting, and it is only through faith and patience that you inherit Gods promises.

There are many questions that surround Christian womanhood: What does it mean? When does it happen; at a certain age, status, or maturity? How do we know we're no longer girls? And when we've figured that out, how will others know how to recognise us as a woman rather than a girl? After all, Christian women don't usually get a rite of passage in which they are named a woman. Seeing this need, Amy Davis Abdallah has created such a rite, and this book accompanies it; there is no need to go through her rite of passage, however, to name yourself a woman. The Book of Womanhood creates a path through the confusion that surrounds the identity of women by its flexible framework, developing the reader's understanding of a woman's relationship with God, their self, others and creation. Amy writes simply as one perhaps further along in her journey of womanhood than most, and she doesn't write alone; she includes the stories of Biblical women, of friends young and old, and even more. The diverse voices come together as a cloud of witnesses encouraging us in our individual journeys. The Book of Womanhood is about recognition, reaching out not only to women, but also to men who seek to understand and empower their wives, daughters, and friends to be the women God has formed them to be. Read for empowerment; read for transformation. Read and become the woman of God you were created to be.

Necessity of Prayer The Battle Cry Christian Ministries
Prayer is our pathway to intimacy with the Father, without it we simply cannot grow. If we want to know God and draw closer to Him, then we need to be in conversation with Him. In this book, Selwyn looks at the basic building blocks of effective prayer using the greatest example of all, Jesus Christ. These building blocks are; worship (focusing on God and who He is); adoration (gazing on God) and contemplation (reflection that may lead to personal transformation); thanksgiving and praise (expressing gratitude for what God does, and for some aspect of every situation of life); petition (presenting requests to God); listening to God (throughout the Bible and in other ways); intercession (fervent, believing and ungarried paryer for the needs of others); and confession of sin (admisson of wrongdoing, and repentance). Through following this pattern you will experience an enriched prayer life and renewed relationship with your heavenly Father.
