Dental Assistant, Advanced LexisNexis Navy Tactics Techniques And Procedures NTTP 1.05.1m MCRP 6-12b Religious Lay Leader May 2016 Per Secretary of the Navy instruction (SECNAVINST) 1730.7 (series), commanders shall provide a command religious program (CRP) which accommodates the religious needs, preferences, and rights of the members of their command, eligible family members, and other authorized personnel. Per SECNAVINST 1730.8 (series), chaplains are the Navy's only trained professional religious accommodators. Because of command religious diversity or lack of access to a Navy chaplain, a commander may appoint a lay leader to provide specific religious services for a specified time. U.S. Navy Regulations, 1990, article 0817, identifies lay-led services as an appropriate means of meeting religious needs in the absence of chaplains and civilian clergy. Article 0820 of the same publication notes that commanding officers (COs) shall provide the necessary logistical support for CRPs. SECNAVINST 1730.7 (series) establishes lay leaders as part of the religious ministry team (RMT) under the supervision of a chaplain. Naval Military Personnel Manual (MILPERSMAN) 1730-010 describes lay leaders as members of the CRP who support a temporary accommodation of specific religious requirements in operational settings when assigned chaplains are not able to provide for specific religious needs within the command. The Marine Corps Manual (MARCORMAN) states that COs may appoint lay leaders to conduct religious services and supplement the ministry of chaplains. SECNAVINST 1730.9 (series) limits the lay leader with respect to confidentiality, and SECNAVINST 7010.6 (series) governs the lay leader's role with respect to religious offering funds. OPNAVINST 1640.8 (series) establishes lay leader responsibilities for brigs afloat. OPNAVINST 1730.1 (series) and Marine Corps Order (MCO) 1730.6 (series) specify that uniformed service members may be appointed as lay leaders by the CO to support CRPs in operational environments. Uniform Regulations United States Navy Jeffrey Frank Jones "This text is designed to give the advanced Air Force ROTC student an over-all view of the military justice system, of how it operates in the Air Force, and of the general responsibilities of those in 'authority or command' who must administer the system. And, above all, it is hoped that the text will engender a feeling that military justice is directly, intimately, and essentially concerned with human conduct - rather than with arbitrary rules, legalistic distinctions, and inflexible classifications"--Pref.

The degree of inquiry will depend on the nature, validity, and seriousness of the complaint. See reference (b). MANDATORY REFERRAL TO NCIS: Reference (c) mandates that certain incidents be referred to NCIS whether occurring on or off base and regardless of civilian investigation involvement. These incidents include: Actual, suspected, or alleged major criminal offenses (punishable under the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ) by more than 1 year of confinement); Non-combat deaths when the cause of death is not medically attributable to disease or natural causes; Fires or explosions of unknown origin affecting Department of the Navy (DON) property or property under DON control; Theft or loss of ordnance or controlled substances; Disappearance of a command member; All instances of suspected fraud against the government within DON (e.g., theft of government property, bribery, false claims for pay, etc.); actual or suspected acts of espionage, terrorism, sabotage, assassination, and actual, suspected, or attempted defection of DON personnel; Internal security incidents, such as loss, compromise, or suspected compromise of classified information and national security cases; and Suspected sex-related offenses as defined under Articles 120 and 125 of the UCMJ. WHEN NCIS DECLINES TO INVESTIGATE: NCIS may, at its discretion, decline to conduct or continue any investigation, but shall expeditiously inform the effected command. A command may then request assistance from the local base security department or appropriate authority or pursue a command investigation pursuant to reference (a).

The purpose of your actions should be to preserve the legal situation until you can consult with your servicing Judge Advocate. However, like most aspects of your command responsibilities, you can fail if you just wait for things to come to you. You need to be proactive in preventing problems before they occur. In the legal arena, this means establishing and enforcing high standards, ensuring your Soldiers are fully aware of those standards and properly trained to comply with them. You must also properly train your Soldiers on all Army policies and higher level command standards so that they also understand and comply with them. Soldiers must also be well-versed in the Army Values and be able to apply those values to real-world situations, which will usually keep them well within legal bounds. Members of the naval service will find that at all points in their careers they can expect to be involved to some extent in the planning and execution of official ceremonies and social events. Protocol is a code of established guidelines on proper etiquette and precedence which, when followed, lays the foundation for a successful event. From this foundation, the host should consider the facets which make a particular situation unique, and from there, use imagination to design a memorable occasion. The most important consideration in planning should always be the comfort of one's guests. A clever host/hostess is able to reach a proper mixture of protocol and common sense that will enable guests to enjoy themselves completely. If this is accomplished, an event is truly successful.
