This book tells the story of the Mini and Moke vehicle range as manufactured and sold in Australia from several perspectives: Production, Sales, Motor Sport, Service and Engineering. We hope that the book will add something a little different to those many books already written about these vehicles that played such an important part in Australian culture during the years 1961 to 1982 and beyond. Written largely by those who worked at the factory, this book celebrates 60 years of the Australian Mini and Moke.
