Physical Sciences for NGSS has been specifically written to meet the requirements of the Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS) for High School Physical Sciences (HS-PS). It encompasses all three dimensions of the standards (science and engineering practices, crosscutting concepts, and disciplinary core ideas), addressing the

Through completion of these activities, students build a sound understanding of science and engineering practices, recognize and understand the concepts that link all domains of science, and build the knowledge base required to integrate the three dimensions of the standards to meet the program's performance expectations.

Annual Report of the Industrial Accident Board for the Twelve Months Ending June 30th ..; 1920 McCullenville, North Carolina offers all the amenities of a stereotypical Southern town. Or does it? Not quite. An innocent, sleepy, riverfront town it isn't. Just beneath the surface, it is teeming with interconnected characters flush with bitterness, revenge, depravity and scandalous secrets that have been deeply buried for decades. Maria Wilkins and her young daughter, Amber, unknowingly move dead center into what is perceived as a bastion of tranquility only to be met with dire, life-threatening circumstances. And one can only guess who the true nemesis is among many possibilities.

For nearly fifty years, Jonathan has pricked the conscience of his readers by laying bare the savage inequalities inflicted upon children for no reason but the accident of being born to poverty within a wealthy nation. But never has his intimate acquaintance with his subjects been more apparent, or more stirring, than in Fire in the Ashes, as Jonathan tells the stories of young men and women who have come of age in one of the most destitute communities of the United States. Some of them never do recover from the battering they undergo in their early years, but many more battle back with fierce and often jubilant determination to overcome the formidable obstacles they face. As we watch these glorious children grow into the fullness of a healthy and contributive maturity, they ignite a flame of hope, not only for themselves but also for our society.
