Exercises in Wood-working, with a Short Treatise on Wood Storey Publishing, LLC
The Blue Book of Woodworking is a practical guide for navigating the issues confronting woodworkers of every skill level. Surveying the tools, techniques, and the temperaments of woodworkers themselves, craftsman Eddie Fitzgerald answers many of woodworking's most vexing questions in a witty, conversational style. While as modern technology has changed the face of woodworking, the essence of the craft remains the same: the natural material wood. And it is a proper understanding of wood which will reveal the secrets of woodworking to the attentive student. Eddie Fitzgerald has been fascinated with wood since childhood, and became a professional woodworker in 2002. From 2014-2019, he was the Director of Woodworking at the Sawtooth School in downtown Winston-Salem, NC. Eddie's furniture pieces can be found in many private and public spaces, including his Alma Mater George Mason University (Fairfax, VA), the Kenan Institute (Winston-Salem, NC), and Albright College (Reading, PA). Visit his website, ebfitzgerald.com, to learn more about his work.
