A poignant tale of one woman's journey through plight and triumph Eluda: a woman of faith Set in Souffle, a small yet calm and beautiful town in

Dominican Republic, this narrative revolves around a unique girl, Eluda. She grew up strong, like her two brothers and always had a cheerful aura emanating from her. After being separated from her mother however, her world turned upside down. She was forced to marry a man who owned vast lands, an older man who did not look at her as a wife, but as a slave. Since then, Eluda was no longer the young person who had the opportunity to smile for it was impossible. One year passed after another, and although she was generally sad, Eluda was able to grasp a tinge of joy from managing every aspect of the farm. Later, she began every day with strength, confidence, and determination to live a conviction that, in the end, turned out triumphant. Gripping and well-written, Eluda: a woman of faith explores the depths of one's own minds, hearts, and souls. It is an account of hope, determination, and faith that will leave you inspired and grateful.

The Mom Test is a quick, practical guide that will save you time, money, and heartbreak. They say you shouldn't ask your mom whether your business is a good idea, because she loves you and will lie to you. This is technically true, but it misses the point. You shouldn't ask anyone if your business is a good idea. It's a bad question and everyone will lie to you at least a little . As a matter of fact, it's not their responsibility to tell you the truth. It's your responsibility to find it and it's worth doing right . Talking to customers is one of the foundational skills of both Customer Development and Lean Startup. We all know we're supposed to do it, but nobody seems willing to admit that it's easy to screw up and hard to do right. This book is going to show you how customer conversations go wrong and how you can do better. The Madman of Piney Woods Harlequin This volume contains an Open Access Chapter.
