I loved the first 3 Anchor Island books but maybe the bar was set too high. The first three books in series had lovable characters and good stories. This story was OK but I never really liked Sam, and Callie was initially likable but as the book progressed she seemed more materialistic and less likable.

More to Give | Callie Henderson had to fight to put her tragic past behind her, but now the up-and-coming player in the hospitality industry is well on her way to happiness. She has her sights set on the lead renovation position at the Sunset Harbor Inn--an inn that just happens to be owned by Sam Edwards, the man who comforted her in her grief and gave her one night of passion before walking ...

Love Anchor Island! If you could sum up More to Give in three words, what would they be? Communication is key! What other book might you compare More to Give to and why? I have had a few series that I have enjoyed but this series has a special feel to it that I can't compare to anything I have read before.
