But though it might sound it Morevi: The Chronicles Of Rafe and Askana isn 't a traditional fantasy novel, it is daring-do adventure set in a world that would fit well on a shelf next to Eric Flint 's "1632verse" alternate history series. High fantasy purists hearing this may have some difficulty with the occasional clich é d line of dialogue, anachronistic phrasing or they may be tempted to reject the novel out of hand because it balances both an historical setting and an alternate
