~~The star of the Gaslight Mysteries is Sarah Brandt, a midwife who gets tangled up in murder mysteries far too often. Sarah is a widow whose husband was murdered 3 years before the first Gaslight book, and whose murder was never solved. This is one of the main reasons why Sarah injects herself into murder investigations.~~

~~The tenth book in the Gaslight Mystery series finally sees a long running plot thread come to a close. Since early on in the series, maybe book two or three, Malloy has been investigating the (now) four year old murder of Sarah's husband, mostly in his spare time. This book sees the payoff on his diligent work.~~

~~I came into the Gaslight series a short while ago. Having been a fan of the Mrs. Jeffries series (in England) I hoped these Gaslight books would be of a similar style. I haven't been disappointed! The entire series is great! I think this one, Murder on Bank Street, was especially good. I so enjoy the main characters, Sarah and Frank and their ...~~

~~In St. Louis, people began singing the song when they saw Frankie on the street. A year after the murder she fled to Omaha, Nebraska to escape the humiliation. The song had already arrived in Omaha so she moved again to Portland, Oregon. There she worked as a prostitute and was arrested several times. Around 1925 she gave up prostitution and opened a shoeshine parlor. In 1935 the movie She ...~~
