A guarantor mortgage involves a parent or close family member offering their home as security against their child ' s loan. This means your child may be able to borrow up to 100% of a property ' s value. By acting as a guarantor, you ' re agreeing to cover the mortgage payments if the homeowner misses a payment.

Starting with the youngest, let each family member try to break the bundle into smaller pieces. It ' s nearly impossible, right? The analogy is obvious: Alone, you can easily break. Together, you ' re stronger. Stick together. Decide as a family where to display the stick bundle so everyone can remember your connection to each other and the Lord. Kids (and adults!) benefit from tangible reminders of abstract ideas, especially in times of stress and anxiety.

Whilst set times for waking, meals, shared chores, bath, TV time and bedtime might fill you with horror, with the right routine you could find you use your time more productively. Your child will find structured family life reassuring and, just as with House Rules, it ' s easier to function as a whole when everyone knows what ' s expected of them. You don ' t have to write it up and stick it on the fridge, but this will help if you are hoping to engage your children in the routine.
