I had high hopes for Navigating Early, as I love historical fiction and was excited to see an autistic character included in such a setting. The author, Clare Vanderpool, won a Newbery Medal for her previous book, Moon Over Manifest, and a Michael L. Printz Honor for Navigating Early. Since these are two of the most prestigious honors for children's literature, I expected that the book would ...

Reading Navigating Early, I totally see why Clare Vanderpool won the Newbery last year. Hers are books that fall within that special category of middle grade fiction that speak as well to adults as to children, capturing not only the magic of childhood but also the hard hitting realizations of growing up.
