Navigon is right up there as regards GPS sales behind Garmin, Tom Tom and Magellan. They have done a lot of innovative stuff - like lane assist, lifetime traffic, Zaggat guides etc. When I bought my nuvi 200, the Navigon was about ten bucks cheaper but I am glad I bought my nuvi because it's so simple to use.

Software Cannot Be Started I have a Navigon 2200T that is just over a month old. Worked great one time. Now it "crashed" and when you start it up it has a screen that says "Navigon software cannot be started. Please reset your device. Contact support if problem persists" I have reset the device many times with the button on the side and it does not fix the problem.
