In 1902 when Lt. Ridley McLean first wrote this "sailor's bible, " he described it as a manual for every person in the naval service. One hundred years later, it continues to serve as a primer for newly enlisted sailors and as a basic reference for all naval personnel--from seaman to admiral. New technology is artfully blended with ancient heritage, facts and figures are augmented by helpful advice, and the mysterious language of the sea is preserved and deciphered in a volume that has served the United States

Navy for an entire century. Updated throughout, the book provides the latest Navy ratings, uniforms, ships, aircraft, and weapons as well as current Navy policies on hazing, fraternization, education, and physical fitness, and a completely new chapter explaining the Navy's mission in terms of its rich heritage. Proceedings of the United States Naval Institute US Naval Institute Press The report describes the operation and use of Program SKOOL, the third part of Project COMPASS, a Computer Assisted Classification and Assignment System. Program SKOOL, a FORTRAN computer program, selects and assigns to a Navy recruit, a naval school, Naval Enlisted Classification Code, calendar week code, and a school location code based on recommendations received from an Enlisted Classification Interviewer. Program SKOOL then prints out all assignments and, if desired, punches assignment output cards. (Author).
