Religious Lay Leader May 2016 Per Secretary of the Navy instruction
(SECNAVINST) 1730.7
(series), commanders shall provide a command
religious program

(CRP) which accommodates the religious needs, preferences, and rights of the members of their command, eligible family members, and other authorized personnel. Per SECNAVINST 1730.8 (series), chaplains are the Navy's only trained professional religious accommodators. Because of command religious diversity or lack of access to a Navy chaplain, a commander may appoint a lay leader to provide specific religious services for a specified time.

U.S. Navy

Regulations, 1990, article 0817, identifies lay-led services as an appropriate means of meeting religious needs in the absence of chaplains and civilian clergy. Article 0820 of the same publication notes that commanding officers (COs) shall provide the necessary logistical support for CRPs. SECNAVINST 1730.7 (series) establishes lay leaders as part of the religious ministry team (RMT) under the supervision of a chaplain. Naval Military Personnel

Manual (MILPERSMAN) 1730-010 describes lay leaders as members of the CRP who support a temporary accommodation of specific religious requirements in operational settings when assigned chaplains are not able to provide for specific religious needs within the command. The Marine Corps Manual (MARCORMAN) states that COs may appoint lay leaders to conduct religious services and supplement the ministry of chaplains. SECNAVINST 1730.9 (series) limits the lay leader with respect to confidentiality, and SECNAVINST 7010.6 (series) governs the lay leader's role with respect to religious offering funds. OPNAVINST 1640.8 (series) establishes lay leader responsibilities for brigs afloat. OPNAVINST 1730.1 (series) and Marine Corps Order (MCO) 1730.6 (series) specify that uniformed service members may be appointed as lay leaders by the CO to support CRPs in operational environments. Members of the naval service will find that at all points in their careers they can expect to be involved to some extent in the planning and execution of official ceremonies and social events. Protocol is a code of established guidelines on proper etiquette and precedence which, when followed, lays the foundation for a successful event. From this foundation, the host should consider the facets which make a particular situation unique, and from there, use imagination to design a memorable occasion. The most important consideration in planning should always be the comfort of one's guests. A clever host/hostess is able to reach a proper mixture of protocol and common sense that will enable guests to enjoy themselves completely. If this is accomplished, an event is truly successful.
