A landmark volume which looks at the multifaceted spheres that informed the composer's life and works and represents a new departure in the study of his music. In this volume, for the first time, the world's leading Lutoslawski scholars consider the full range of his musical output and the biographical, cultural and historical contexts in which those musics were created. It contends that all of Lutoslawski's worlds are equally worthy of study, because each represents an opportunity better to understand the life and music of a figure of paramount importance to the critical and cultural history of twentieth-century music.

A rancher chases two killers through Wyoming—with help from bullets and blood will prove an unlikely heroine—in this action-packed Western from the national bestselling authors. The Happy Penguin

The legendary MacCallister clan brought 500 years of Highlander tradition, honor, and fighting courage to the American frontier. In an astounding new novel from the national bestselling Johnstones, Duff MacCallister rides into the Colorado mountains with a young girl at his side—and a gang of stone-cold killers eagerly waiting for them . . . DAY OF RECKONING

When Duff MacCallister sees smoke rising from his neighbor's ranch, he knows that something is very wrong. But he isn't prepared for what he finds: smoldering buildings, a rancher and his wife brutally slaughtered, and a fourteen-year-old survivor who could not save her parents. Now, Duff is going after the killers—and his only companion is the headstrong girl who refuses to be left behind. Duff and his new companion head into the towering Gore Range. Up ahead are two convicted murderers who were about to be hung in Cheyenne, and the killers who broke them loose. Duff doesn't have a plan—or a prayer. But the girl will be more help than he can know, and when the day of reckoning comes, who is the bravest and fiercest fighter of all . . .

David Garza did not set out to be a serial killer. The first victim fell into an accident because David did not know that his father's pistol had a hair trigger. With that under his belt, it seemed natural in a rage to take the life of one who had offended him. The third victim, a law officer, fell to a vicious cutthroat attack made in what he perceived to be self-defense. It just got easier each time.
