The complete review's Review:
. Niels Lyhne is a life-story, particular to its time (it was first published in 1880) and place (Denmark). It is short, but not really hurried, and though it skips ahead in places, focussing only on specific times in Niels' life, it provides an ample, vivid picture of the boy and then the man he becomes.

So widely different, then, were Niels Lyhne's father and mother, the two friendly powers that struggled waged with a greater variety of weapons.
