This book chronicles artist Sanford Wurmfeld's now legendary color class, which he seeded, developed, and taught at Hunter College in New York City for more than two decades. The "Color Seminar" was geared to both artists and art historians alike, and Wurmfeld taught it each semester for twenty-five years, with his last class taking place in the spring of 2012, the year he retired. All told, more than 500 individuals participated in his elective course, and its extensive and continuing impact on contemporary art discourse, and on abstract painting in particular, cannot be overstated. From studios to classrooms, former students, now established artists in their own right, have been teaching their own interpretations of this course for years now in visual arts and curatorial programs across the country. Wurmfeld's new book begins with a discussion of afterimages and related experiments concerning the nature of color experience. It then works its way through theoretical ideas about color and the phenomenology of perception, finally ending with a discussion of color as content in 20th and 21st century abstraction -- what Wurmfeld terms presentational art -- with its emphasis on artists crafting the viewer experience through an active analysis of color. The book concludes with an exhaustive bibliography of additional resources for readers to continue their own self-directed research into color history and experience.

The study concentrates on the Writings (Old Testament books not in the Torah or the Prophets), the Gospel of John, and Revelation. Emphasis on the Psalms as Israel's hymnbook and prayer book leads natural to an emphasis on worship in the study. Present through the entire study is the sense of living toward completion - toward the climax of the message and the promise, extravagantly pictured in Revelation. The image of the tree and the color gold emphasize the prod and promise in the Scriptures for DISCIPLE IV: UNDER THE TREE OF LIFE. The word under in the title is meant to convey invitation, welcome, sheltering, security, and rest - home at last. Commitment and Time Involved 32 week study Three and one-half to four hours of independent study each week (40 minutes daily for leaders and 30 minutes daily for group members) in preparation for weekly group meetings. Attendance at weekly 2.5 hour meetings. DVD Set Four of the five videos in this set contain video segments of approximately ten minutes each that serve as the starting point for discussion in weekly study sessions. The fifth video is the unique component that guides an interactive worship experience of the book of Revelation. Under the Tree of Life Scriptures lend themselves to videos with spoken word, art, dance, music, and drama. Set decorations differs from segment to segment depending on the related Scripture and its time period. Set decoration for video segments related to the Writings generally has a Persian theme.
