And, just because I was curious and loved the built-in lens protector, I had to get the second generation of the L35AF, the Nikon One Touch. My Nikon One Touch The Nikon One Touch (or L35AF2) was first made in 1983 as the successor to the L35AF. Supposedly, this camera is an "upgrade" to the original L35. The L35AF2 is all automatic.

5.0 out of 5 stars Nikon L35AF Camera. October 31, 2019. Verified Purchase. More than you would expect from an old film camera like this. Everything about the camera is functional and packaged great.
