A woman contemplates suicide as her best friend lies dying. A touching graveside ritual keeps love alive. The cracks in a long-time marriage are revealed when the scotch runs out. A young couple experience the ecstasy and agony of first love. A Month of Sundays shines a light on our most vulnerable moments and finds the grace and dignity within. There is beauty in survival, in knowing we can overcome. We suffer unbearable losses, love the wrong people, and make a mess of our lives, but we go on. Some of the most important moments happen when we are raw and exposed. This collection of a dozen stories explores those dark corners that define us, the emotional spaces we prefer to avoid.

The British public adored Nigel Mansell more than any other driver. When he was at his height, crowds at the British Grand Prix were bigger – and more fervently patriotic – than at any time before or since. Mansell has always been the consummate showman, wringing every ounce of speed from a car, racing wheel-to-wheel with the fiercest rival and exhibiting incredible tenacity. This superbly produced book brings Mansell's career vividly to life through stunning images sourced exclusively from the archives of LAT, the world's biggest library of motor racing photographs.
