It involves stepping forward and bowing. Possibly there is some kneeling, such as when one is knighted. One is almost never knighted. But this person may kneel and receive a tap on each shoulder with a sword. Or, more likely, this person will be in a car or a store or under a vinyl canopy when it happens. Or online or on the phone.

Miranda July often writes stories about strange forms of obsessive love, but she has not gone to this extreme before, not in No One Belongs Here More Than You anyway. “Something That Needs Nothing” takes love to the edge and over, way over. The story concerns two girls, whom we follow into young adulthood. No One Belongs Here More Than You by Miranda July ...
