A very common mistake that people make while writing the award nomination text, is that they simply state the achievements rather than demonstrating how the achievements actually made a nominee deserving. For example, you may write that your particular nominee volunteered in a community program and because of that he/she deserves to get an award.

How to Write a Compelling Nomination

Example Nomination Letter To Whom it May Concern: I'm honored to nominate Sarah Brown for the Manager of the Year Award. I've worked with Sarah for twelve years, and have always found her to be efficient, great with customer service and a positive asset in employee relations.

Say, for example, that you are writing a nomination letter for the best employee. In this case, you have to elaborate on how the employee made a significant impact on the company and his or her contributions which paved the way for the development of the corporate entity.
