North of Boston is an independent farm in Boxford, Massachusetts. Founded by twelfth-generation farmer, Justin Chase, its name is a nod to Robert Frost's 1914 book of the same title. North of Boston leverages nearly 350 years of family experience growing and raising the highest quality food. From heritage-breed pork and beef, to some of the finest tasting heirloom vegetables and fruits, we work hard every day to provide compelling and delicious food for our members and customers. North of Boston - Wikisource, the free online library Robert Lee Frost, b. San Francisco, Mar. 26, 1874, d. Boston, Jan. 29, 1963, was one of America's leading 20th-century poets and a four-time winner of the Pulitzer Prize. An essentially pastoral poet often associated with rural New England, Frost wrote poems whose philosophical dimensions transcend any region. North of Boston Summary - eNotes.com

North of Boston by Robert Frost - Goodreads

The publication of A Boy ' s Will (1913) and North of Boston (1914) marked the debut of Robert Frost as a major talent and established him as the true poetic voice of New England. Four of his volumes would win the Pulitzer Prize before his death in 1963, and his body of work has since become an integral part of the American national heritage.
