Solution: Once you have the model number of your machine, you will need a part number in order to purchase a replacement part. If you don't have the part number, you can enter the model number of your machine into a parts diagram tool. The tool will then ask you to select which assembly you want to look at – that just means which part of the tractor does your

Kijiji in Ontario. - Buy,

Sell & Save ...

I have an older snow

blower no 486-24839

also have this no also

47036 will it fit my

new model tractor

27390 it looks like it

has pretty well the same type of

connections as the new snow blowers. Would I need to get a new

mounting kit 68030 to fit the new tractor.

Thank You
