On Deconstruction

The Encyclopedia
Britannica entry on deconstruction was written by Jonathan Culler. This is how he describes the theory: "A form of philosophical and
literary analysis,
derived mainly from work begun in the 1960s by the French
philosopher Jacques Derrida that

With an emphasis on readers and
reading, the author considers deconstruction in terms of the questions raised
by
psychoanalytic,
feminist, and
reader-response criticism. As a result, this book is both an authoritative synthesis of Derrida's thought
and an analysis of the often-
problematic
relation between his philosophical writings and the work of literary critics.
