Review - The ...

In One Breath Away, an extremely small, close-knit, farming community is deeply shaken when an armed gunman enters the all-grade encompassing school and takes a classroom hostage.

Heather Kudenkauf's well-crafted story is told from multiple points of view, which enhances the drama, and pulls the reader into the all-too-real plot even more.

One Breath Away
(Audiobook) by Heather Kudenkauf | Audible.com

“Gudenkauf (One Breath Away) is back with a riveting, fast-paced story. Ellen Moore, a social worker and harried mother of three, is bowed under the weight of her caseload of suffering children. Her life is shattered when, engrossed with an emergency case, she accidentally leaves her 11-month-old daughter in a hot car.

Heather Kudenkauf - New York Times Bestselling Author ... Spare here, descriptive there, her words catapult the reader into a harrowing ordeal that could have been ripped from the headlines, which of course makes the characters and Kudenkauf's expert treatment of them, so incredibly real. One Breath Away takes the reader on an electrifying ride that is, by the end, both terrifying and satisfying. I dare you to forget it.”

Heather Gudenkauf has an incredible talent which shines through in One Breath Away. The flow of the story was excellent, the detail and character development was wonderful and the fact that she has written a story that truly focuses on the truth of society makes this a gripping story that many readers will be able to relate to on many different levels. Heather Gudenkauf - New York Times Bestselling Author ...

Heather Gudenkauf's, One Breath Away is a character-driven novel full of suspense, but to me there seemed to be something missing.

The entire time I was reading, I couldn't help thinking, been there, done that - like I'd read a similar storyline before. Also, the short choppy chapters and some of the back-story took away from the urgency of what was going on at the school.
