The image Benner creates in this book is the desire God has to bring us into. constant awareness of His presence and deep communion to Him.

Our lack of awareness of His nearness is due to our being fearful or otherwise unwilling to open ourselves to Him. he has already revealed His deep desire to be come near to us through His atoning sacrifice. Benner describes the practice of Lectio Divina as a discipline that will help one open to God's presence.

Opening to God Quotes by David G. Benner - Goodreads

In Western Christianity (such as Roman Catholicism, Lutheranism, or Anglicanism) Lectio Divina (Latin for "Divine Reading") is a traditional monastic practice of scriptural reading, meditation and prayer intended to promote communion with God and to increase the knowledge of God's word.

"David Benner's Opening to God should become a classic! It is warm, wise, gentle and challenging. For the beginner or the experienced it offers guidance in the Christian prayer practice of lectio divina, making this ancient monastic approach to prayer wonderfully accessible to the contemporary seeker. By no means is it a rigid or opaque 'how to' book, but rather an invitation to go ever deeper in the life of prayer.

Lectio Divina Year C 2016 /. Lectio Divina: Matthew 20:1-16. "Lectio divina is an authentic source of Christian spirituality recommended by our Rule. We therefore practice it every day, so that we may develop a deep and genuine love for it, and so that we may grow in the surpassing knowledge of Christ. In this way we shall put into practice the Apostle Paul's commandment, which is mentioned in our Rule: "Let the sword of the spirit, the Word of God, live abundantly in your mouth and in ...

LECTIO DIVINA: Listening to God - devozine [ for teens

Lectio Divina is a meditative prayer, allowing God to speak through his living Word. It has been described as a way to "feast on God's Word", so we'll use that analogy as we walk through the four steps of this prayer. "Seek in reading and you will find in meditation; knock in prayer and it will be opened to you in contemplation." ~St.

LECTIO DIVINA: Listening to God. Reading the Bible and praying the Bible are two very different undertakings. To pray the Bible is to apply listening and silence to the Word of God in order to hear God speak. This prayer method known as lectio divina, "divine reading" or the sacred reading of scripture, is being practiced by more and more young people and youth groups today as they seek to listen to God.
