I've read all Agatha Christie books and consider myself a purist, but the change in the story, and even the murderer made more sense to me (sorry Agatha!) Ordeal by Innocence is probably among my least favorite of her books but this series is excellent. It was so well acted I was actually shocked by whodunnit.

Reviewed in the United States on March 12, 2018. Verified Purchase. I'm not a Christie aficionado, but Ordeal by Innocence is surprisingly good. Though two-dimensional, the main characters are fairly interesting, the story is well told, and the central theme (implied by the title) is thoughtfully illustrated.
