"Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." --Proverbs 4:23. If you bought a brand new car, you would naturally want to take care of your expensive investment. It must get regular oil changes to keep the engine running smoothly. You wouldn't think of letting it run out of either fuel or oil, and you would check the tires and brakes fairly often. You would want to keep it clean and looking good. A car is costly; it's a big investment that requires care. The human heart is more valuable and requires even more care than any car. You expect it to last far longer. Its safety and health depend upon you and how you care for it. However, the heart is not a car full of parts that need to be checked. Men made cars, and men maintain them. God created the heart. His law governs and maintains all that He has made, but you must do your part. This Owner's Manual for the Heart has been created for you. Your Heart. You have been equipped with a good, clean heart, that has all that it needs to operate at full capacity. It has been installed with good moral fiber, spiritual sense, the Ten Commandments, truth and love. To keep it in good shape, regular maintenance is required. So review your operating instructions in depth.
