The Verification Guide Edvisors Network, Inc.

This publication is intended for financial aid administrators and counselors who help students begin the student aid process--filing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), verifying information, and making corrections and other changes to the information reported on the FAFSA. This guide contains the following chapters: (1) The Application Process: FAFSA to ISIR, which explains that the laws governing the FSA programs require that a person apply for aid with a form provided by the Department of Education and that no fee be charged for processing it. Students can fill out a paper FAFSA or they can apply electronically; (2) Filling Out the FAFSA, which provides guidance that supplements the application instructions, and discusses some of the more difficult questions that may arise; (3) Expected Family Contribution (EFC), which describes the EFC formula in detail; (4) Verification, which provides a list and discussion of required verification items; and (5) Corrections, Updates, and Adjustments, which recognizes that there are situations where the original application information may need to be changed such as when errors need to be corrected, when dependency status, or household size changes, or when an aid administrator makes an adjustment based on professional judgment. A Verification Worksheet is included

105-1 Hearing: H.R. 6, The Higher Education Amendments of 1998 Student Loan Programs, Serial No. 105-115, July 22, 1997 Lulu.com

There is concern about the length and complexity of the Free Application for Fed. Student Aid (FAFSA) and the statutory need analysis formula used to determine aid eligibility. A study group examined options and implications in simplifying the financial aid process. It focused on: (1) identifying ways to shorten the FAFSA and make it less burdensome to complete; (2) identifying changes to the statutory need analysis formula that would reduce the amount of financial info. required by the FAFSA without causing redist. of fed. and state student aid; and (3) determining how any changes to the FAFSA and the statutory need analysis formula could be implemented. This summary captures the ideas and themes that emerged at the panel and during interviews.
