To think that Patriotism can be summed up in one sentence seems unusual. True Patriotism means many different things to me than just caring and respecting other people. It means to be proud of your country, obeying the law, displaying the American flag, voting, celebrating national holidays, and being involved in the protection of all our freedoms no matter what one's nationality is. How To Write A Strong Patriotism Essay?

Patriotism Essay. 250 words 1 page (s) Patriotism may be defined as love for or devotion to one ' s country and while this is a simple definition, politicians and media outlets often present misleading definitions of patriotism. For example, under the reign of former President George W. Bush, support for Iraq War would often be implied as an act of patriotism which could not have been more misleading.
