DP's SSC CPO General Awareness [Previous Year Questions] EduGorilla
The past ten years in South Africa has seen many changes in education - the creation of a single department of education; common examinations for all learners in public schools in the country, a new outcomes based education curriculum which was introduced to learners in the general education and training phase since 1998 and will be introduced to the further education and training phase from 2006. To evaluate the success of these changes South African researchers still use the indicator of student achievement. The matriculation examination is the visible, high profile and public performance indicator. Every year parents, learners, teachers, researchers, government officials, policymakers, and the general public get involved in the debate around the matric examination with the most frequently asked questions being - Did the pass rate go up? Are standards dropping? Are the results real or have they been manipulated? How is our education system doing? Are we meeting the development goals? What should the matriculation examination of the future look like? participants from government (national and provincial),

 Coming from a modest background in the dusty streets of Gugulethu, Dr Mbava gives an inspiring account of how through hard work and perseverance she rose above her circumstances and chose to live a life without limits. Her schooling journey in the turbulent and politically fraught last dying decade of apartheid in South Africa, miraculously took an astounding turn when she was a top matric student and found herself as a freshman at an elite liberal arts college for women in New England, Massachusetts on the other side of the world. This book, part of a short story collection on her intellectual journey, will inspire many to leverage opportunities that are within reach and most of all to rise above perceived limitations. Ultimately our destinies are the results of our choices given our circumstances

What will you do... When a beautiful, pleasant and promising morning suddenly turns into the most horrible day? When a wonderful dream is gradually dragging on to become a mirage? When death holds you hostage in between, neither carries you away nor leaves you alive? When the only hope becomes hop? If true fame can neither be measured by how many millions one has nor in how many investment and achievements accomplished, then what can we use for its evaluation? Johnny's decision to become famous by all means in order to exact revenge for the humiliation he suffered on the commemoration of the new Freedom Day celebration under the first ever black elected president of South Africa, Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela, in 1995, is short-lived by happiness, a close encounter with death. Being dead for 20 years, yet he believed one can even fight death! How?

With eleven new contributions, this second edition of essays on the sources and principles of Dominican values in education offers an extended sample of the many settings in which Dominican education, broadly understood, finds expression. Cherished by all Dominicans, these values are exemplified not only in the lives of well-known foundational Dominicans, but also in some of those many others who, on every continent and across time, have responded in typically Dominican ways at key moments in history. Educators, activists, philosophers, teachers, preachers, artists, healers and theologians at many levels share their analyses and reflections on educating in many different contexts, explicitly and implicitly demonstrating ideals and values common to the goals of Dominican education everywhere. It is hoped that this collection, offered again in this decade of Dominican Jubilee--1206-1216 to 2006-2016--will inform, inspire and encourage all those engaged in the great work of educating not only youth but people of all ages towards greater life and liberty.
