What will you do... When a beautiful, pleasant and promising morning suddenly turns into the most horrible day? When a wonderful dream is gradually dragging on to become a mirage? When death holds you hostage in between, neither carries you away nor leaves you alive? When the only hope becomes hop? If true fame can neither be measured by how many millions one has nor in how many investment and achievements accomplished, then what can we use for its evaluation? Johnny's decision to become famous by all means in order to exact revenge for the humiliation he suffered on the commemoration of the new Freedom Day celebration under the first ever black elected president of South Africa, Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela, in 1995, is short-lived by happiness, a close encounter with death. Being dead for 20 years, yet he believed one can even fight death! How?

Juta and Company Ltd
With eleven new contributions, this second edition of essays on the sources and principles of Dominican values in education offers an extended sample of the many settings in which Dominican education, broadly understood, finds expression. Cherished by all Dominicans, these values are exemplified not only in the lives of well-known foundational Dominicans, but also in some of those many others who, on every continent and across time, have responded in typically Dominican ways at key moments in history. Educators, activists, philosophers, teachers, preachers, artists, healers and theologians at many levels share their analyses and reflections on educating in many different contexts, explicitly and implicitly demonstrating ideals and values common to the goals of Dominican education everywhere. It is hoped that this collection, offered again in this decade of Dominican Jubilee--1206-1216 to 2006-2016--will inform, inspire and encourage all those engaged in the great work of educating not only youth but people of all ages towards greater life and liberty.
