What's the highlight of a low clerk at a court? Monthly salary, uniform, or retirement benefits? Arimbi, a typist at a district court became the gem of pride for her parents and the people in her village. She was a farmer's daughter who could become a public servant: working in uniforms every day, getting regular monthly salaries, and would rightfully own a retirement benefit in her senior years one day. Arimbi also became their rock of hope. Many people passed on their messages and their wishes through her. To them, a clerk at a court was omnipotent. From an innocent clerk who knew nothing about anything, Arimbi adapted to and became a part of the shameless group of people at the court. Nothing was illegal when many people had done it. There was nothing to fear when many people consider it as a common thing. The point was, 86!

Dalam beberapa tahun terakhir, kajian terhadap sastra mengalami perkembangan yang signifikan, termasuk di dalamnya sastra anak. Hal ini tampaknya tak lepas dari kesadaran bahwa sastra anak menduduki posisi penting dalam upaya membentuk manusia berkepribadian unggul. Sastra anak menjadi medium apik dalam mengembangkan wawasan tentang kehidupan dan mentransfer nilai-nilai kepada anak dalam balutan keindahan bangun bahasa-ceritanya. Karena itu, menurut Nurgiyantoro, akhirnya timbul kesan bahwa pembelajaran sastra tidak lain adalah pembelajaran moral atau nilai-nilai. Indikasi perkembangan kajian sastra anak terlihat dari penelitian-penelitian sastra anak yang menggunakan perspektif baru, yang tak terpisahkan dari derap kemajuan zaman dalam bidang teknologi atau yang lebih kita kenal dengan industry 4.0. Misalnya, lahirnya sastra digital atau cyber sastra. Kemunculan sastra dalam bentuk digital menjadi angin segar bagi tumbuh suburnya karya sastra, karena cyber sastra memiliki ruang publikasi yang sangat luas. Artinya, aturan-aturan dan konvensi-konvensi tentang penerbitan karya agak terkesampingkan. Di sisi lain, sastra anak hakikatnya memerlukan adanya batasan mengingat sasarannya adalah anak dengan segala latar belakang dan karakteristiknya. Implikasinya, kajian sastra anak pun berkembang seturut dengan itu. Perkembangan teknologi yang begitu cepat pada sisi yang lain menumbuhkan kekhawatiran akan terkikisnya sisi humanis kita, baik pada tataran individu secara pribadi maupun pada tataran individu sebagai representasi dari nilai-nilai karakter bangsa. Karenanya, saat ini kita mulai beranjak dari revolusi industry 4.0 menuju Masyarakat 5.0. Di sinilai, sekali lagi, posisi strategis sastra ditunjukkan, mengingat fungsi dasar sastra yaitu dulce (menghibur) dan utile (mendidik). Dalam hal ini, tentu yang dimaksud adalah menghibur dan mendidik untuk-anak-anak. Kondisi-kondisi di atas mengarah pada satu benang merah, bahwa peranan para sastrawan, peneliti, dan akademisi sangat dibutuhkan untuk menjadi bagian dari upaya mengantarkan generasi bangsa memiliki karakter unggul dan berwawasan global melalui sastra. Sebagai respon atas hal tersebut, HISKI Komisariat Malang, HISKI Komisariat Surabaya, dan HISKI Komisariat UNESA berkolaborasi untuk menghimpun dan mempublikasikan ide, pemikiran, dan gagasan akan hal itu dalam sebuah bunga rampai berjudul " Sastra dan Anak di Era Revolusi Industri 4.0 Menuju Masyarakat 5.0 " .

A story of human confusion in the midst of a fast-changing digital era, when humans don't have much chance to stop, look back, and contemplate. Moving from one crowd to another, from connecting to alienating, we flock to the future and leave the past behind. Technology has transformed human civilisation. Social network is the new world, where tremendous amount of time is spent running away from the harsh reality of life lled with defeat and absurdity. The novel portrays a young Generation Y, who lives in two worlds with blurring boundaries. Unable to distinguish what's real and what's virtual, Jayanegara falls into the trap of hope and illusion of cyberspace. As the first Indonesian novel that explores the pressing issue of human existence in an era where modern technology consumes our existence, The Last Crowd cleverly unravels our deepest fears and desires: loneliness, isolation, and an innate obsession to be whoever we want to be on screens.

This is the first book which examines the nature and significance of a feminist critique in anthropology. It offers a clear introduction to, and balanced assessment of, the theoretical and practical issues raised by the development of a feminist anthropology. Henrietta Moore situates the development of a feminist approach in anthropology within the context of the discipline, examining the ways in which women have been studied in anthropology - as well as the ways in which the study of gender has influenced the development of the discipline anthropology. She considers the application of feminist work to key areas of anthropological research, and addresses the question of what social anthropology has to contribute to contemporary feminism. Throughout the book Henrietta Moore's analysis is informed by her own extensive fieldwork in Africa and by her concern to develop anthropological theory and method by means of feminist critique. This book will be of particular value to students in anthropology, women's studies and the social sciences.

Vivid, bawdy, comic, and arresting, the exciting new novel by the Indonesian phenomenon, Eka Kurniawan Told in short, cinematic bursts, Vengeance Is Mine, All Others Pay Cash is gloriously pulpy. Ajo Kawir, a lower-class Javanese teenage boy excited about sex, likes to spy on fellow villagers in flagrante, but one night he ends up witnessing the savage rape of a beautiful crazy woman by two policemen. Deeply traumatized, he becomes impotent. His efforts to get his virility back all fail, and Ajo Kawir turns to fighting as a way to vent his frustrations. He gets such a fearsome reputation as a brawler that he is hired to kill a thug named The Tiger, but instead Ajo Kawir falls in love with Iteung, a gorgeous female bodyguard who works for the local mafia. Alas, the course of true love never did run smooth... Fast-forward a decade. Now a truck driver, Ajo Kawir has reached a new equanimity, thinking that his penis may be trying to teach him a lesson and even consulting it in many situations as if it were his guru—love may yet triumph. Vengeance Is Mine, All Others Pay Cash shows Eka Kurniawan in a gritty, comic, pungent mode that fans of Quentin Tarantino will appreciate. But even with its liberal peppering of fights, high-speed car chases, and ladies heaving with desire, the novel continues to explore Kurniawan's familiar themes of female agency in a violent male world dominated by petty criminals and a corrupt police state.

"Earth Dance," the story of four generations of Balinese women, centers on conflicts that arise between the demands of caste and personal desires. Narrated by Ida Ayu Telaga, a Balinese woman in her thirties, the novel shows Balinese women-as depicted by her mother, grandmother and female peers-to be motivated by two factors: the yearning to be beautiful, and the desire for a high-caste husband. Headstrong Telaga defies her mother's wishes and marries the man of her dreams, who is a commoner. Thus, in a reversal of societal expectations, as shown in the novel by images of women who aspire to "liberation" through "marrying up," Telaga's emancipation is implicitly characterized as a move downwards, through transformation to the status of a commoner. "Earth Dance" also reveals that-like high-caste status-beauty, too, has a price. Behind the thick, glossy hair and golden complexion, lies a web of jealousy, derision and intrigue. Telaga, whose life is controlled by her mother's avarice, her mother-in-law's bitterness and the greed of her sister-in-law, has frequent cause to wonder: "Is this what it means to be a woman?"

The third edition of this successful book, which applies the science of psychology to problems of religion. Dr Thouless explores such questions as: why do people believe? Why are their beliefs often held with irrational strength? How are changes in belief systems related to mental health? What are reasonable attitudes towards alternative belief systems? This edition includes samples of the experimental and statistical studies of religious problems, including the author's own study of the strength of religious beliefs. This edition also pays more attention to the problems of non-Christian religious systems, with special consideration given to the problems of mutual toleration. Finally Dr Thouless considers whether it is reasonable for modern man to adhere to any religious belief system. This is an excellent textbook for students of the social sciences, particularly psychology and theology, and will also interest the general reader who has an intellectual curiosity about religion.

Ini adalah buku kedua yang diinisiasi Paradance Platform melalui program Koreografer Menulis setelah Daya Tari (2018). Koreografer kok menulis? Ya. Jika karya tari adalah cuplikan pengalaman pribadi koreografer yang dipindah (diceritakan) melalui sistem gerak/laku tubuh, maka dalam buku ini, pengalaman koreografer tersebut dicukil dan dipindahkan ke dalam tulisan. Tulisan ini bisa jadi tidak secara langsung penting bagi laku profesionalitas si koreografer, tetapi penting bagi dunia tari secara umum. Dalam buku ini, 18 koreografer muda menuliskan pengalaman dan gagasan mereka terutama mengenai apa dan bagaimana pengalaman karya mereka di masa pandemi yang tiba-tiba memencarkan dan nyaris mematikan aktivitas panggung seni pertunjukan. Setidaknya buku ini membantu kita mengintip sejauh mana gerilya tari berjalan di masa pandemi lalu, yang itu berarti juga dapat menjadi penanda seberapa kuat daya tari dalam diri koreografer-koreografer muda Indonesia ini.
