Format: Kindle Edition Verified Purchase. I started reading "Pause to Rewind" hot off the heels of a murder mystery/thriller, and at first I thought this book would be too "every day" and unexciting to keep my interest. I quickly realized how wrong I was when Jenny's son's health problems first became apparent. Jenny, the main character is a ...

Sparks is a formula writer, whose endings are predictable from the start. Since they are mainly about plot, and since his plots follow a well-established formula, there's not much to savour in the reading. In contrast, Pause to Rewind focuses on human emotions and interactions, providing glimpses of good souls...
