When we speak of one's personal identity we speak as what makes us the person that we are. Our identity consists of what makes us unique and different as an individual and from others. According to Locke personal identity does not involve the body at all, the person could be involved by his soul. If such would occur Locke suggested that the person could be transferred by his own soul. However personal identity to Locke cannot be equated with the identity of a thinking substance either because ...
