Sarah's dream was to live in a beautiful valley with a slow moving river running through it. This was a big dream for a young girl who, along with her brother Frank, were orphaned early in life. Their parents died with the wagon train on the way to California in the early 1800's. Sarah and Frank were the only survivors. How would two children survive the highway men, the raging grassfires, the cold winters and the heartache? This is their life story as told through the eyes of an old Indian man named Winnipesaukee.
