Alex Sarll. Music is magic.
Unless you're dead inside, you know this. The way that guitar line or synth sound or beat seems to take your heart with it, changes the whole complexion of your day - we've all been there. But how does that work?

Phonogram (comics) - Wikipedia

The first volume, Rue Britannia, began in August 2006 and stars David Kohl, a mage who uses the medium of Britpop music to interpret his magic. The second volume, The Singles Club, consists of seven one-shots looking at young phonomancers and their experiences over one night at a dance club. Each issue consists of a 16-page main story, rounded-out with features and back-up stories.

Sesana rated it it was ok.

Shelves: fantasy, comics. I usually really like Gillen's writing, and I love McKelvie's art. When they work together, it usually makes me very happy. See Young Avengers, or The Wicked + the Divine.
