The Photographs Not Taken is a collection of essays by photographers about the times they didn't use their camera. I have asked the photographers to abandon the conventional tools needed to make a photograph, and, instead, make one using words to describe the memories and experiences that didn't go through the camera lens. Here, the process of making a photograph has been reversed.

I was taking photos in a food hall in a Tokyo Department Store recently and was told this was forbidden. After being involved in Surf Life Saving for many years you are also not allowed to take photos of competitors (due to the amount of photos being put on child porn sites). You have to have media accreditation to take photos at these events.
