Review: Playing With Fire, by Theo Fleury - The Globe and Mail

Playing with Fire is the antithesis. Start with the sadness and hunger of a little boy who comes from small-town prairie poverty that chills even in August; an embarrassing and disgusting alcoholic...

Playing With Fire a game-changer for Theo Fleury and many ...

Playing with Fire: The Theo Fleury Story was one of those rare nights in the theatre where the acting is as wonderful as the writing which is as wonderful as the direction which is equally matched by the set design. And I stood and clapped heartily for each and every one of those elements.
