Poor Things - Alasdair Gray - Complete Review

Poor Things also deals with recovery, but unlike Longreave it is loud and fast and angry. Longreave deals in nuance and stealth; Poor Things beats the reader in the head with manic glee — our main character, Joel, is involved in a car wreck I ’ m noticing a pattern in Daniel Barnett ’ s books: he loves exploring tragedy — of all sorts — and its impact on survivors.

Poor Things (Wattys2018 Winner) - Daniel Barnett - Wattpad

Poor Things is a political book. It is also witty and delightfully written, if at times two-dimensional. Attention to Victorian Glasgow with its civic fountains, domestic interiors and medical schools gives the book texture. It is the characters, and strangely enough its phantasmagoria, that give it life."
