I almost walked away from my Marriage. I had given up. The years of pain had become unbearable and the number of tears shed were innumerable. The Enemy had waged war on my marriage for many years and I was tired of fighting. So, I waved my

White Flag of Surrender. But just before I could finish filling out the divorce papers, God staged a personal intervention with me. His message to me was "THIS IS WAR!" And told me that the reason I could never experience victory was because I was fighting the wrong enemy and had the wrong battle strategy. Next He gave me step by step directions on how to fight the enemy effectively on the behalf of my marriage and my husband. This book is a personal collection of the very prayers that I prayed when it seemed as if my family was being destroyed and divorce was imminent. These are the same prayers I prayed and life lessons I had to learn to turn my marriage and my husband around and to finally experience my happily ever after. This book is for the wife who is on the verge of giving up. This book is for the wife who is exhausted and tired of fighting the same battles without getting any victories. This book is for the wife who is ready to successfully engage the enemy and fight to save her husband, marriage, and family. This is War! And this book is your battle strategy.
