Many local and international companies in both the private and public sector now rely on pre-employment tests, such as aptitude and personality tests, as the most effective method to measure your 'fit', or match, for a position you apply for. These tests tell employers what they need to know, not just what you want to share with them.

Pre-employment personality tests can come in many forms. Common examples are true or false questionnaires, scaled-response surveys or essay questions. True or false questions usually pertain to specific situations. For example, one may read, "I enjoy working as a member of a team."
