Rule of law and constitutionalist ideals are understood by many, if not most, as necessary to create a just political order. Defying the traditional division between normative and positive theoretical approaches, this book explores how political reality on the one hand, and constitutional ideals on the other, mutually inform and influence each other. Seventeen chapters from leading international scholars cover a diverse range of topics and case studies to test the hypothesis that the best normative theories, including those regarding the role of constitutions, constitutionalism and the rule of law, conceive of the ideal and the real as mutually regulating.

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights Cambridge University Press

The Internet's importance for freedom of expression and other rights comes in part from the ability it bestows on users to create and share information, rather than just receive it. Within the context of existing freedom of expression guarantees, this book critically evaluates the goal of bridging the 'digital divide' — the gap between those who have access to the Internet and those who do not. Central to this analysis is the examination of two questions: first, is there a right to access the Internet, and if so, what does that right look like and how far does it extend? Second, if there is a right to access the Internet, is there a legal obligation on States to overcome the digital divide? Through examination of this debate's history, analysis of case law in the European Court of Human Rights and Inter-American Court of Human Rights, and a case study of one digital inclusion programme in Jalisco, Mexico, this book concludes that there is indeed currently a legal right to Internet access, but one that is very limited in scope. The 2012 Joint Declaration on Freedom of Expression and the Internet is aspirational in nature, rather than a representative summary of current protections afforded by the international human rights legal framework. This book establishes a critical foundation from which some of these aspirations could be advanced in the future. The digital divide is not just a human rights challenge nor will it be overcome through human rights law alone. Nevertheless, human rights law could and should do more than it has thus far.

American Constitutions Teaching and Learning Company

Authors Preface It is impossible for a man to learn, what he thinks he already knows! Most Americans believe that the U.S Government is protecting privacy rights and private property. The sad truth is, through the Act of 1871, and HJR 192, our government has abandoned its' duty to the supreme office holder, the sovereign Citizen. The third Roosevelt administration, took advantage of its' pseudo authority and effectively duped the masses, by fraud, then, enacted the treasonous provisions of the "New Deal"! Yet, few Americans are actually aware of, that grand deception. We the People were dealt a foreign judicial system, which overturned the original "chain of command," and, unlawfully prosecutes all, for "Public Policy" violations. The "Act of 1871" unlawfully claimed THE UNITED STATES as sovereign. In 1933, HJR 192 initiated "Public Policy," instead of Common Law, and, issued U.S. "debt instruments," Federal Reserve Notes, instead of silver certificates. Also, by design, the public education system, of the "U.S." government, deliberately, failed its' duty, to fully educate all Americans, of their lawful birthright, that of "sovereign" rights! Article 1 Section 10 of the Texas Constitution states, quote; and no person shall be held to answer for a criminal offense, unless on an indictment of a grand jury, end quote! By law, no public servant is to act against your liberty, unless he has actually witnessed you, commit a felonious act, or exigent circumstances exit. Or, if there has been a sworn affidavit filed, naming you as the perpetrator of a felony. His sworn duty is expressed in the preamble of Article 1 of the Bill of Rights, quote; That the general, great and essential principles of liberty and free government may be recognized and established, we declare: end quote! Liberty is precious, second only to life itself! That is why "we the People" have authorized "public servants" to guard and protect "our sovereignty." They are authorized to act "only" against actual Common Law crimes. The essential duty of "public servants," was/is to serve and protect, the "liberty," property and sovereign rights of the People. Can "our" free society exist, abide, and flourish, if we do not honor our God given liberty as a precious part of life, not to be infringed upon without a binding cause? Liberty, precious, God given liberty, cannot be infringed upon, simply because "our" representatives, have chosen to allow their agents to misapply commercial codes, above the inherent rights of the sovereign People. In this country, one is considered to be a criminal, if one is cited, not wearing a seat belt. And, if you fail to pay the agency, "claiming criminal behavior," they will arrest you! Even though, there is no victim, no verified complaint, no indictment, no felonious act, and no exigent circumstances existed, to condone your seizure. The public servants within "our" government have sworn an oath, to protect the essential principal of liberty? Our God given, liberty! So, can a victimless crime, lawfully exist? Proverbs 3 - 30 & 31 says; Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm. Envy thou not the oppressor, and choose none of his ways
