The Central Universities Entrance Test (CUET-UG) has emerged as a crucial examination for students aspiring to secure admission into prestigious universities across India.
With the competition intensifying each year, thorough preparation and strategic practice have become essential for success. In 2024, The Common University Entrance Test (CUET) had conducted the assessment test for admission to UG programme across 44 Central Universities at 354 centres in India and at 25 centres abroad. In 2024, nearly 15 lakh candidates registered for the CUET (UG) Exam. Oswaal Combined Mock Test Papers have been meticulously designed to simulate the syllabus and actual exam pattern issued by the NTA, ensuring that students can practice in an environment similar to the one they will face on the day of the examination. Each test paper covers a wide range of topics, carefully aligned with the CUET syllabus, helping students assess their knowledge, hone their problem-solving skills, and improve their time management in the CBT test. A Hybrid mode (Pen & Paper + CBT) question paper is divided into four sections: Sections IA & IB contain language-specific questions, Section II comprises domain-related questions, and Section III contains questions on general topics. All questions are MCQ-based. This book of Combined Mock Test Papers for CUET (UG) aims to provide a comprehensive and well structured resource for students preparing in various streams, including -

Publisher and Bookseller Oswaal Books Language teacher education is widely identified as one of the most important areas that needs addressing in order to improve early language instruction, yet research into teacher education for early language teachers remains relatively sparse. This volume responds to this gap by compiling studies with diverse methodological tenets from a wide range of geographical and educational contexts around the world. The volume aims to enhance understanding of early language teacher education as well as to address the need to prepare early language teachers and assist them in their professional development. The chapters focus on the complexity of teacher learning, innovations in mentoring and teacher supervision, strategies in programme development and perceptions, and knowledge and assessment in early language learning teacher education. The volume offers comprehensive coverage of the field by addressing various aspects of teacher education in different languages. The contributions highlight examples of research into current practice in the professional enhancement of early language learning teachers, but with an emphasis on the implications for practitioners.

 The spread, functions and models of the New Englishes have become a dominant theme of the eighties. This volume addresses, specifically, the English used in Singapore in the private and public domains, particularly the school system. The topics covered include: an overview of earlier studies and attempts at codification; a consideration of whether the formal mode of written Singapore English should be standardised; the problems of pronunciation; etc. and specific lexico-grammatical problems which have proved to be ambiguous for those not familiar with Singapore English. Also included in this volume is the largest bibliography so far published on Singapore English with over 700 titles listed, thus providing an essential tool for any future research.
