For this type of primary or kindergarten spelling test, the students would listen to words you would say, which they would spell on paper. Typically, there's a list of words that you assign the students to spell. But there are also instances where they would spell words from a dictation passage that may include punctuations and sentences.

To start off, you give the class a (lengthy) spelling test. There are a couple of different versions depending on the grade you teach. Since I ' ve got 2 nd graders, I use the Primary Spelling Inventory (PSI). On the Pearson website, you can see an example of the different tests and a rundown on how to score them.
Words Their Way--Assessment
The Primary Spelling Inventory (PSI) is used in kindergarten through third grade. The 26 words are ordered by difficulty to sample features of the letter name – alphabetic to within word pattern stages. Call out enough words so that you have at least five or six misspelled words to analyze.
